I have been working with SuperVisas for 10 months now, and I referred 14 of my clients to their team. So far, all of our clients are got approval with their visa. Compare to other immigration lawyers or RCICs I worked before, I increased approximately USD 150K in profit. Also, I can manage all my clients' documents, fees and etc in my SuperVisas' business account is a plus.

My best friend and I own an immigration agency in Beijing and we refer clients to RCICs. Before I start using SuperVisas, I spend an average of 8 hours per client... with SuperVisas, I can do all these in a couple of minutes that includes finding the program for my clients and getting the document checklist along with fees and procedures by myself in my SuperVisas' business account. Now I can deal with more clients at the same time and most importantly, SuperVisas is only charging 50% of what my other partner charges. I highly recommend SuperVisas to other agencies if you want to make more money with less work on your side.
